Unnatural Causes was produced to draw attention to the root causes of health and illness and to re-frame the debate over health in America. Economic and racial inequality are not abstract concepts but hospitalize and kill even more people than cigarettes. The wages and benefits we're paid, the neighborhoods we live in, the schools we attend, access to resources and even our tax policies are health issues every bit as critical as diet, smoking and exercise.

Each screening will be followed by a forum aimed at understanding and addressing inequities. All are welcome to attend this free public event; attend as often as you can.

Healthy and Active Rainier Valley Coalition is a partnership aimed at building and strengthening the Rainier Valley by increasing the health of its residents through culturally relevant promotion of physical activity and nutrition. A reception will follow.
